CHAIRMAN AND PRINCIPAL OWNER

MARK ATTANASIO

The 2009 season is Mark Attanasio's fifth as Chairman and Principal Owner of the Milwaukee Brewers Baseball Club.

Last season, the Brewers reached the playoffs for the first time since 1982 as the National League Wild Card. This road to the playoffs culminated in a dramatic, come-from-behind win in the last regular season game versus the Chicago Cubs. After Ryan Braun's eighth inning home run gave the Brewers a 3-1 lead and CC Sabathia's complete game four-hitter clinched the win, some 40,000 fans remained in the stands to watch the Mets and Marlins finish their game on the Miller Park scoreboard. After the final out, the ballpark erupted in celebration with fans and players sharing in this long-awaited achievement, 26 years in the making.

This accomplishment stands as a testament to Attanasio's commitment to deliver on his four cornerstone pledges to the fans and the community:

1. FIELDING A PERENNIALLY COMPETITIVE TEAM

Attanasio has worked closely with Executive Vice President & General Manager Doug Melvin, Vice President & Assistant General Manager Gord Ash and the baseball operations staff to make significant improvements on the field.

The team continues to rely upon significant contributions by players developed through the minor league system, including Ryan Braun, Prince Fielder, J.J. Hardy, Corey Hart and Rickie Weeks in the field as well as Yovani Gallardo and Manny Parra on the mound. During the 2008 season, Ryan Braun signed the most lucrative deal in franchise history, making him a Brewer through the 2015 season (with options).

This offseason included several key changes, including the signing of all-time saves leader Trevor Hoffman as the closer, Ken Macha as the manager, Willie Randolph as bench coach as well as several other coaching and baseball operations additions.

2. DELIVERING THE BEST FAN EXPERIENCE POSSIBLE, WHETHER AT MILLER PARK, THROUGH BROADCASTS OR OVER THE INTERNET

In addition to making the playoffs, the Brewers reached another significant milestone in 2008 when over three million people came through the turnstiles at Miller Park. This winter, Brewer fans purchased one million tickets earlier than at any time in franchise history, a testament to the strong bond between the community and team.

For 2009, Attanasio has approved several measures to maintain Miller Park's position as one of the best venues in sports as well as improvements for those fans who follow the team via its broadcasts or through the internet. The improvements undertaken at Miller Park this offseason include opening the new Harley-Davidson seating area, updating the right field picnic area (which will now be sponsored by AirTran Airways), remodeling all Club Suites and five meeting rooms, constructing a party suite named after the 2008 Brewers and expanding and renaming of the Club's main retail location which now will be called Brewers Team Store by Majestic.

For those fans who follow the team via broadcasts and the internet, virtually every Brewer game will be shown on either FS Wisconsin or a national network. FS Wisconsin has committed to broadcasting 150 games, many of which will be in high definition. Additions have also been made to brewers.com, including new original content, blogs and chats. As instituted during Attanasio's tenure, the organization remains committed to annual tributes, including Cerveceros Day and the Negro Leagues Tribute Day.

3. REMAINING A LEADER IN THE COMMUNITY

Attanasio continues to be personally involved in the expansion of the Club's efforts in the community. The SCORE Program (with its core character principles of School, Community, Opportunities, Role Models and Excellence) will expand its reach to implement these principles in more area elementary schools and make more use of a special curriculum developed in conjunction with educational specialists. The Club is also continuing its effort to promote youth physical fitness in conjunction with HOPSports through an interactive program that stresses overall well-being and sports-related skills. A new program for 2009 is called Hometown Heroes, which includes a monthly on-field pre-game ceremony that recognizes the philanthropic efforts of local citizens.

The Club revamped its Winter Warm-Up and On-Deck events this offseason, giving fans a more personal look at many of the players, coaches and club officials, including Attanasio. The Winter Warm-Up was reformatted into a variety show featuring Bob Uecker as emcee with the players participating in game shows. Some of the proceeds from the two events were made as a charitable contribution, helping to fund the Club's year-round programs.

4. BEING AN ORGANIZATION WHERE PEOPLE WANT TO WORK, WHETHER ON THE FIELD OR BEHIND THE SCENES

Under Attanasio's direction, the Brewers have become an employer of choice - for free agents who seek to join the team to front office personnel looking to add to our growing roster of scouts, minor league instructors and talent evaluators; or in a variety of positions on the business side - from customer service representatives to marketing executives and community relations personnel.

Fostering a rewarding work environment is a key priority, not just for attracting and retaining employees, but also in order to remain a leader in the community as means to meet the goal of making the Brewers the best-run ballclub possible.

In addition to his role with the Brewers, Attanasio oversees the Leveraged Finance Group at The TCW Group, Inc. He also serves on the board of this Los Angeles-based investment management firm with approximately $100 billion under management.

Attanasio also holds positions on several not-for-profit boards, including Heal the Bay (an environmental group aimed at preserving the Pacific coastline), the Cedars-Sinai Medical Center Sports Spectacular (providing funding and leadership in the study of juvenile diseases), The United Way of Milwaukee, The Greater Milwaukee Committee, Harvard-Westlake School and the President's Leadership Council of Brown University.

Attanasio also is an investor in the Milwaukee Admirals of the American Hockey League.

Attanasio received his A.B. from Brown University in 1979 and his J.D. from the Columbia University School of Law in 1982.

Mark and his wife, Debbie, have two sons.

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT - BUSINESS OPERATIONS

RICK SCHLESINGER

Rick Schlesinger recently completed his sixth season with the Brewers, having been named Executive Vice President-Business Operations on December 12, 2002. Schlesinger oversees the Club's business affairs, including sponsorships, marketing, ticket sales, guest services, public relations, community relations, broadcasting and communications.

Since Schlesinger joined the Brewers, attendance has increased 80%, from 1.7 million in 2003 (25th in MLB) to the franchise record of nearly 3.1 million (9th in MLB) achieved during the 2008 season. During this same period, season ticket sales have more than doubled and the Club's television ratings have increased by more than three hundred percent.

Under Schlesinger's guidance, the Club has enhanced the fan experience at Miller Park, with construction of the new Home Plate Team Store, Metavante Club, Associated Bank Kids Zone, 1982 Brewers and 1957 Braves Party Suites, AirTran Airways Landing Zone, the new Home Plate Team Store and Gehl Club. New projects on tap for 2009 include the Harley-Davidson Deck and 2008 Brewers Party Suite, and complete renovations of the Brewers Team Store by Majestic, all of Miller Park's 43 Club Level Suites, and Miller Park function rooms.

Over the past six years, the Brewers' fan experience has received honors from both fans and media in annual polling and surveys. In its most recent polling (Summer 2008), SI.com announced that Miller Park rated second overall in their Fan Ballpark Rankings while ESPN The Magazine placed the Brewers 13th out of 122 major league franchises in its "Ultimate Franchise Rankings" fan survey. In the 2008 Turnkey Team Brand Index, which rates the brand strength of professional sports franchises, the Brewers placed 26th out of 122 major league franchises surveyed, up 11 spots from the prior year. Also, in the two most recent SI.com "Fan Value Index" surveys, the Brewers achieved top marks for the entire Miller Park experience as voted on by both media and fans.

Under Schlesinger's leadership, the Brewers have significantly expanded their reach into the community. Central to these efforts has been the creation of initiatives such as the S.C.O.R.E. program (a school program and curriculum that focuses on character education) and the Brewers Block Parties (carnival-style events that take place in multiple locations throughout Southeastern Wisconsin). In recent years, the Brewers have hosted annual games honoring the Negro Leagues and Hispanics in Baseball (Cerveceros Day).

Prior to joining the Brewers, Schlesinger served as the Vice President, Business and Legal Affairs/Assistant General Manager for the Anaheim Angels from 1998-2002 after coming to Anaheim Sports, Inc. (ASI) from Walt Disney Pictures and Television. Schlesinger handled all contract and legal matters for ASI, the Angels, and the NHL's Mighty Ducks, and worked on all contractual and arbitration issues for the baseball club.

A Phi Beta Kappa graduate from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 1983, Schlesinger received his Juris Doctor from Harvard Law School (Cum Laude) in 1986. After graduating from Harvard, Schlesinger spent six years at the Los Angeles law firm of Latham and Watkins before joining Disney.

Active in the community, Schlesinger serves on the boards of the Make-A-Wish Foundation of Wisconsin, the YMCA, and the Wisconsin Sports Development Corporation and is a member of the Greater Milwaukee Committee that contributes to the cultural and economic base of the Milwaukee Metropolitan area.

Schlesinger is a native of Bayside, Wisconsin. He and his wife, Diane, reside in River Hills, Wisconsin with their daughter, Caitlin, sons Bradley and Sam, and two dogs, Roxy and Scout.

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT - FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

BOB QUINN

Bob Quinn, with over 15 years of experience in professional baseball, begins his seventh season in an executive role with the Brewers.

He joined the Brewers on January 3, 2003 as Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer before being promoted to Executive Vice President-Finance and Administration on July 19, 2007. A fourth generation baseball executive, Quinn oversees the financial operations of the Brewers as well as human resources, information systems, Miller Park operations, Arizona spring training operations and business administration.

Quinn plays a lead role in creating the annual and long-range business and financial plan for the Brewers that has allowed the team to stay competitive on the field and provided the resources to continuously enhance the fan experience at Miller Park. He was instrumental in the creation of new fan enhancements at Miller Park as well as significant changes in game entertainment, ticket packages and promotions. Quinn also started several initiatives that have been critical to the Brewers customer service practices. In 2007, he began the "Trading Places" program, where team management worked on the frontlines as concession workers, parking attendants, ticket takers, ushers and ballpark maintenance workers to sample the experience from the perspective of both event staff and fans. This past year was the first for his "Fans First" effort, with Brewers front office executives randomly awarding fans each night with ticket upgrades, autographed items and once-in-a-lifetime entertainment experiences.

In 2008, the Brewers enjoyed success both on and off of the field. Under Quinn's leadership, the team established a franchise attendance record of nearly 3.1 million fans, completing the fifth straight season of significant growth in this area.

Prior to coming to Milwaukee, Quinn spent nine years with the San Francisco Giants from 1994-2002, last serving as Vice President of Finance. He served in many capacities and contributed in all areas of the business throughout his tenure. He also played an instrumental role in the private financing and construction of AT&T Park.

Quinn graduated from Marquette University in 1990 with a degree in accounting and worked for the public accounting firm Price Waterhouse in Milwaukee and San Francisco before joining the Giants.

In addition to his accomplishments, Quinn continues a family legacy and influence in professional baseball, and in professional sports, as a member of one of the game's most celebrated multi-generational families. Covering over 275 combined years of experience, tradition and dedication to professional sports and professional baseball, Quinn comes from a long line of front office sports executives. His father, Robert E. Quinn, was general manager for the San Francisco Giants, New York Yankees and Cincinnati Reds (including the 1990 World Champions). Quinn's grandfather, John Quinn, was general manager of the Boston and Milwaukee Braves (including the 1957 World Champions) and of the Philadelphia Phillies. His great grandfather, J.A. Quinn, was general manager for the St. Louis Browns, Brooklyn Dodgers, Boston Red Sox and Boston Braves and served as the first curator of the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, New York.

Quinn's honors and awards include being named as Milwaukee's "2008 CFO of the Year" by the Business Journal. In January 2007, Quinn was honored with the Young Alumnus Award, conferred through the College of Business Administration of Marquette University. And in 2005, he was named to The Business Journal's "Forty Under 40" list, a prestigious honor bestowed upon those who demonstrate leadership and accomplishments in their profession and community.

Quinn serves as Vice President and Treasurer of Brewers Charities, Inc., which provides financial and other support for youth recreation, scholarships and education throughout Wisconsin. He is also a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and serves as a mentor to college students in the area.

Quinn has played lead guitar in several rock bands, culminating in appearances at Milwaukee's Summerfest Music Festival in 2007 and 2008.

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER

DOUG MELVIN

Doug Melvin was named Executive Vice President and General Manager of the Milwaukee Brewers on September 26, 2002. He is the eighth general manager in Brewers history. Following the 2008 season, he signed a contract extension that will keep him in Milwaukee through 2012.

Melvin has dramatically overhauled the Brewers' roster during his time as general manager, helping to bring the franchise its first postseason berth in 26 years in 2008. The 2008 season also marked the second consecutive winning record for the team as the Brewers finished 90-72, good enough to capture the National League Wild Card. Melvin's midseason acquisition of CC Sabathia via trade with the Cleveland Indians was key to the 2008 postseason run and will go down as perhaps the biggest trade in team history.

This past offseason, Melvin signed all-time saves leader Trevor Hoffman as a free agent. He also was able to ink one of the Brewers' young stars, Prince Fielder, to a multi-year deal. Fielder joined teammate Ryan Braun, who Melvin signed to a long-term deal during the 2008 season.

In 2007, the team posted its first winning record since 1992 as they went 83-79 and finished just 2.0 games behind the Cubs in the National League Central Division. That offseason, Melvin added a number of veterans who played key roles in the run to the postseason, a group that included Mike Cameron, Eric Gagne, Jason Kendall, David Riske and Salomon Torres. Cameron, Kendall and Riske will continue to play an important role on the 2009 Milwaukee Brewers.

Melvin's best acquisitions as a general manager include Francisco Cordero, Carlos Lee and Michael Young (with Texas). All three players went on to become All-Stars after they were acquired by Melvin. He has also been responsible for the signing of Comeback Players of the Year in 1996 (Kevin Elster) and 1999 (Ruben Sierra).

Melvin oversees one of the strongest player development systems in baseball. The Brewers' farm system has developed a number of players under his tenure that have contributed greatly to the Major League team. Braun, selected in the first round of the 2005 First-Year Player Draft, was named 2007 National League Rookie of the Year and was named to his first All-Star team in 2008. Fielder, selected in the first round of the 2002 First-Year Player Draft, finished third in the 2007 National League MVP voting as he belted 50 home runs. Eight Brewers in the 2008 Opening Day lineup were signed and developed through the Brewers' minor league system.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Melvin, 56, was the successful general manager of the Texas Rangers from 1996-2001. He helped the Rangers earn their first postseason appearance ever in 1996. Under his direction, the Rangers won the American League West three times. He was hired in Texas by former President George W. Bush and the current United States Ambassador to Japan, Tom Schieffer.

Before joining the Rangers, Melvin spent nine years in the Baltimore Orioles organization as a special assistant to club owner Edward Bennett Williams and General Manager Hank Peters in 1986. He became Director of Player Personnel in charge of minor league operations in November, 1987 and added the title of Assistant General Manager under Executive Vice President/General Manager Roland Hemond in 1988.

Melvin worked for the New York Yankees from 1979-85 following his retirement as an active player. He pitched batting practice and coordinated advance scouting reports for the Major League coaching staff, earning a promotion as the Club's Scouting Director in 1985. In that role, he and Fred Ferreira were responsible for signing All-Star Bernie Williams.

As a player, Melvin pitched for six seasons in the minor leagues for the Pittsburgh Pirates and New York Yankees, posting a 29-19 record with a 3.43 ERA. He was signed by Pittsburgh in 1972 and pitched two years before being released. After sitting out in 1974 with a leg injury, he was signed by the Yankees by Pat Gillick and played four more years.

Highly decorated, Melvin traveled to Kansas City in January 2009 to receive the Andrew "Rube" Foster Award presented by the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum to the National League Executive of the Year. This past offseason, Melvin also received the "Nice Guy Award" at the 44th Annual Red Smith Dinner in Appleton, Wisconsin. Melvin was introduced at the dinner by longtime Major League general manager and Melvin's former boss and mentor, Roland Hemond. Melvin was named Major League Executive of the Year by Baseball America in 1998. He also earned that award from The Sporting News in 1996 and was named American League Executive of the Year by Baseball America that same year. He was elected to the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame in 1997.

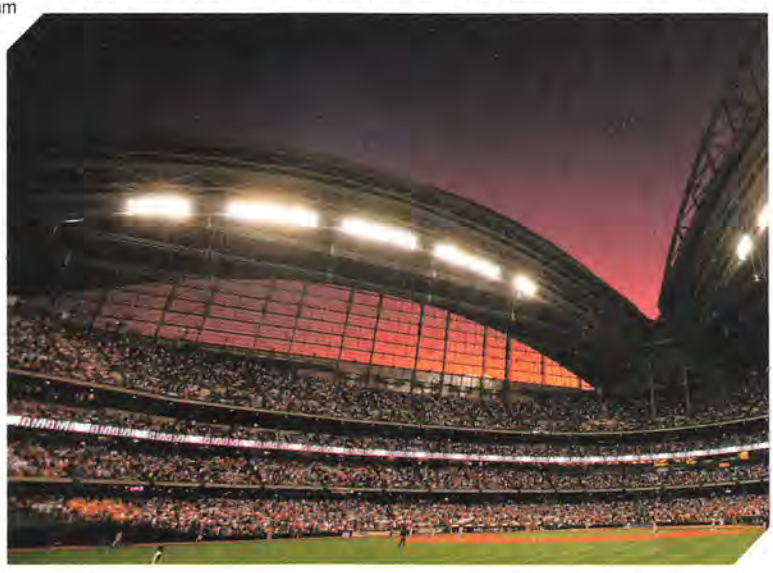
MILLER PARK

The Milwaukee Brewers take pride in offering the best overall experience for every fan who attends a game. Central to the quality of the fan experience is Milwaukee's jewel of a ballpark, Miller Park.

Over the past five years, the Brewers fan experience has received honors from both fans and media in annual polling and surveys. In their most recent polling (summer, 2008), SI.com announced that Miller Park rated second overall in their Fan Ballpark Rankings while ESPN The Magazine placed the Brewers 13th out of 122 major league franchises in their "Ultimate Franchise Rankings" fan survey. In the 2008 Turnkey Team Brand Index, which rates the brand strength of professional sports franchises, the Brewers placed 26th out of 122 Major League franchises surveyed, up 11 spots from the year prior. And in the two most recent SI.com "Fan Value Index" surveys, the Brewers achieved top marks for the entire Miller Park experience as voted on by both media and fans.

One of the keys to Miller Park's popularity is that it is a dynamic facility that has adapted to changing fan tastes in its eight seasons. This year, guests will notice the new Brewers Team Store by Majestic. Located in the Hot Corner, the Store was completely renovated during the off-season and now features special sections including a new hat and jersey wall, "The Meat Locker" (an area dedicated to tailgate and children's novelties), and "Brewed for Her" (a section featuring women's apparel). Overall, the Brewers have dramatically increased the Club's merchandise offerings in recent years, which culminated with the organization being named Major League Baseball's "Retailer of the Year" for 2008. Also getting a facelift this past winter were each of the 43 Club Level suites. The suites were outfitted with new flat screen televisions, new furniture, new lighting, hardwood floors and reconfigured wall construction to add square footage. In addition, a new party suite was added-the 2008 Brewers Party Suite (similar to the 1982 Brewers and 1957 Braves Party Suites, new in 2007), and all of the ballpark's meeting rooms were completely renovated. Another debut in 2009 is the new Harley-Davidson Deck in left-centerfield, which gives fans a unique setting to take in a Brewers game. Patrons of the all-inclusive Deck will receive access to a special motorcycle parking lot and will enter Miller Park through "Gate H-D."



The final upgrade to Miller Park for the 2009 season will be noticed by players and fans alike-the playing field itself. In late October of 2008, the old surface was removed to make way for a new bluegrass playing field.

In 2008, the renovated "Metavante Club" (formerly the .300 Club) opened its doors to fans. In addition, the new Associated Bank Kids Zone made its debut in the right-field corner of the Field Level with 8,000 square feet of interactive activities for kids.

Other recent improvements include the 3,100 square foot Home Plate Team Store, the all-inclusive "Gehl Club" on the Club Level, new LED boards circling the seating bowl, and the newly renamed AirTran Airways Landing Zone group party area behind the right-field wall. With these enhancements, it is hard to believe that Miller Park is only eight years old.

Miller Park's debut dates to April 6, 2001, a day that the people of Wisconsin and fans of Major League Baseball will remember for many years to come. In front of the President of the United States, the Commissioner of Baseball and many more dignitaries, the Milwaukee Brewers and Cincinnati Reds christened Miller Park in a thrilling game culminating with a game-winning home run from Richie Sexson in the bottom of the eighth inning.

On that day, President George W. Bush became the first sitting president to attend a professional sporting event in the State of Wisconsin. He, along with Baseball Commissioner, Allan H. (Bud) Selig, threw out ceremonial first balls prior to the game. This was just the first of many wonderful events that have already taken place in the Brewers new home.

In its inaugural season, Miller Park was not only the home to Brewers baseball. While the team was away, the park played host to a pair of major concerts, the George Strait Country Music Festival in May and a show by the band N'Sync in July. Both concerts drew more than 34,000 fans each and earned rave reviews from the performers and fans alike.

That was just the beginning. The Brewers continued to make Miller Park the home for a wide variety of events in 2002. The ballpark hosted the 73rd Major League Baseball All-Star Game, Milwaukee's third All-Star contest and its first since 1975. Additionally, Miller Park accommodated a University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee baseball doubleheader in April and regularly hosts Panther baseball home games.

In 2003, legendary rocker Bruce Springsteen brought his E Street Band to Miller Park for the first time for a memorable performance in front of more than 30,000 fans. The ballpark has also hosted the filming of the motion picture "Mr. 3000," starring Bernie Mac and Angela Bassett, The Miller Lite Masters Professional Bowlers Association Finals, and one of the midwest's largest youth chess tournaments.

In August 2005, Miller Park played host to the 150th birthday party for its namesake, the Miller Brewing Company. A mini-village was built on the field along with a stage where rocker Bon Jovi played to a capacity crowd. And in 2008, H.O.G. (the Harley Owners Group) celebrated its 25th Anniversary with a spectacular rally of 45,000 motorcycle enthusiasts and a concert featuring Kid Rock in the Miller Park parking lots.

On Saturday, October 4, 2008, the ballpark played host to its first ever postseason game. A frenzied sellout crowd of 43,992 watched the Brewers defeat the Philadelphia Phillies, 4-1. Hall of Fame Brewers Broadcaster Bob Uecker threw out the ceremonial first pitch to a thunderous roar.

Miller Park has drawn over 19 million visitors in its first eight seasons, including 3,068,458 for Brewers baseball in 2008, shattering the all-time Milwaukee baseball record for attendance. Last season, the ballpark sold out 44 times-including 22 in a row from July 10 to September 1-also setting a team record.

In its eighth year, Miller Park has been a significant cog in the resurgence of Milwaukee as a tourist destination. Along with the Calatrava wing of the Milwaukee Art Museum, the Midwest Airlines Convention Center, Milwaukee Public Market and the Harley-Davidson Museum, Miller Park has helped put Milwaukee on the map as a place to visit any time of the year.

"There's no comparison. This is an awesome building and a great place to play. You miss County Stadium, but when you see this, you forget about it real quick. It's like you're outside. It doesn't have that closed-in feeling like most domes do. They brought the outside in, so it's awesome." - Jim Gantner.

"Oh, boy is that beautiful. This is one of the greatest ballparks in the country. Some dome stadiums feel like you're in someone's living room. But this, people will fall in love with it." - United States Senator Russell Feingold.

"I truly wanted to put the uniform back on and play again." - Hall of Famer Robin Yount on his first impressions of Miller Park.

Started in Miller Park's inaugural season of 2001, the Walk of Fame has welcomed 15 inductees going into the 2009 season. The first class of Walk-of-Famers in 2001 included Henry Aaron, Rollie Fingers, Paul Molitor and Robin Yount. In 2002, Allan H. (Bud) Selig and Cecil Cooper joined the prestigious ranks. In 2003, legendary Brewers radio voice Bob Uecker and former G.M. Harry Dalton joined the Walk of Fame. In 2004, Jim Gantner and Gorman Thomas took their place on the Walk of Fame and in 2005, Harvey Kuenn and Don Money were honored.

Beginning in 2006, balloting changed to follow the National Baseball Hall of Fame guidelines with candidates needing 75% of the vote for election.

In 2007, former Milwaukee Braves players were added to the ballot, an effort to honor the strong baseball tradition in the city of Milwaukee. The first year, Eddie Mathews, Warren Spahn and former G.M. John Quinn were elected.

HELFAER FIELD: WISCONSIN'S PREMIER YOUTH BASEBALL FACILITY

The Milwaukee Brewers joined with the Southeast Wisconsin Professional Baseball Park District Board and the Evan and Marion Helfaer Foundation to build Helfaer Field, the home of Wisconsin's finest youth baseball facility.

Designed by Eppstein-Uhen Architects of Milwaukee, Helfaer Field was built on the site of County Stadium by Hunzinger Construction, the company that built the original County Stadium and was a part of the team that built beautiful Miller Park.

The $3.1 million facility was built with the help of a $2 million charitable grant from the Helfaer Foundation as well as $1.1 million from the Miller Park infrastructure budget.

Featuring 502 bleacher seats and additional concourse seating of 220, this is the premier location for youth baseball and softball leagues to host their championship games and tournaments. The fences reach 200 feet with walls six feet high with the exception of left field where the wall is nine feet. The playing surface of Helfaer Field was also replaced in October 2008, giving Little Leaguers the same playing surface that the Big Leaguers play on inside Miller Park.

The foul poles of County Stadium have been used at Helfaer Field and the area where home plate existed in the old ballpark has been memorialized on the third-base concourse.

The Evan and Marion Helfaer Foundation was founded on February 2, 1974 and is dedicated to charitable, religious and educational purposes in Wisconsin and the greater Milwaukee area. Mr. Helfaer was also an original investor in the Brewers.

Children from the three Brewers primary youth baseball leagues were on hand in August 2001 to turn the dirt at the groundbreaking ceremony. The Little Brewers League, Girls of Summer Softball League and the Brewers RBI (Reviving Baseball in the Inner-City) are the three avenues the Brewers offer children from ages 6-17 to play softball and baseball in Wisconsin with over 3,000 taking part statewide. Helfaer Field opened on May 31, 2002 and has been used by hundreds of teams and thousands of children since its inception.

Helfaer Field is available for organized athletic events. The emphasis is primarily to make Helfaer Field available for youth baseball (5-12) and girls softball. However, Helfaer Field is also available for other groups and uses as well.

On non-Brewers home game dates, there will be up to six time slots of two hours each available for rental. On Brewers home dates, there will be up to three time slots at two hours each and is available for tailgate functions up to three hours prior to game days.

For more information on Helfaer Field reservations check out the club's website at brewers.com or call the Helfaer Field coordinator at (414) 902-4888.

HELFAER FIELD SUNDAYS

Beginning in May, the Milwaukee Brewers will again offer fans a free chance to enjoy Helfaer Field. Helfaer Field Sundays gives fans of all ages a chance to enjoy baseball's premier youth baseball facility. The ballpark opens at 10:30 a.m. and remains open until game time on all Sundays when the Brewers play at Miller Park during the 2009 season.

Kids and adults alike can go out and throw the ball around in the outfield at Helfaer Field. Bats are not allowed.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS
MASCOTS

Perhaps as much a part of Milwaukee's rich baseball history as the players, Bernie Brewer has become a symbol of what's good about being a fan of the Brewers.

THE HISTORY OF BERNIE BREWER

The concept of a team mascot first emerged back in 1970 when the expansion team needed to draw more fans to the ballpark. That season, the original "Bernie Brewer," 69-year-old Milt Mason, camped out in a trailer atop the scoreboard in late June, vowing not to come down until a crowd of at least 40,000 attended a game. On August 16, a bat day crowd of 44,387 showed up to bring their adopted hero down from his perch.

The demand for Bernie Brewer grew, and by 1973 he emerged as a character who cheered on the home team from a beer-barreled chalet. He would slide down from his perch into a beer stein following each Brewers home run and victory. Bernie Brewer became a fixture at home games through the Brewers' powerful years, when home runs came with regularity for teams known as "Bambi's Bombers" and "Harvey's Wallbangers."

In 1984, the Brewers rebuilt the bleachers, replacing Bernie's Chalet with a sound tower, sending the mascot into temporary retirement. In 1993, by popular demand, Bernie made a triumphant return and has been a fixture at every home game since.

RACING SAUSAGES

Legend has it that the Famous Klement's Racing Sausages started to take shape in the early 90s. In their formative years, they were little more than a cartoon running a virtual race every home game on the giant scoreboard in center field at County Stadium.

As the movement began to take shape and a buzz developed about our racing weenies, eventually the Bratwurst (#1), Polish (#2) and Italian (#3) made their debuts out of the left-field corner of County Stadium on selected Sundays throughout the season. What started as a fun way to entertain many of the children attending afternoon games became an instant hit. The three sausages added a fourth when Hot Dog (#4) came on board in the middle of the 1990s.

The race grew in popularity among young and old alike. During the 2000 season -- the final year of County Stadium -- the virtual race was thrown out and the actual sausages began to race every game.

This tradition continued as the Brewers moved across the parking lot to Miller Park in 2001. Running with the Sausages took on a life of its own as having an 'in' with the club might mean the chance to dive into the costume and scurry along the warning track prior to the seventh inning. Hideo Nomo, Pat Meares and Geoff Jenkins are just three of the lucky players to boast "Racing Sausage" among their personal accolades.

LETT IT BE

Trevor Hoffman was originally drafted by the Reds as an infielder in 1989. He spent two seasons in the minor leagues and batted .228 with 3 HR and 43 RBI in 164 games at Billings (1989) and Charleston (1990). Though not prolific at the plate, Hoffman showed a strong arm as he played shortstop in 1990. Jim Lett, who was Hoffman's manager at Charleston, recommended that he try pitching. Hoffman, who had not even pitched in high school, became a full-time pitcher at Cedar Rapids in 1991. He posted a 1.87 ERA with 12 saves in 27 appearances that season and found himself in the Major Leagues by 1993.

The rest is history.

Note: Jim Lett now serves as a coach in the Brewers organization at Double-A Huntsville.

In 2007, Money was named the Southern League Manager of the Year after guiding the Stars to a division title in both halves of the season. This marked a first in franchise history. For his efforts, he was named manager for the Southern League All-Star Game. Additionally, Money was selected to coach in the All-Star Futures Game in San Francisco.

Prior to joining the Stars, he managed at Class-A Beloit for seven seasons (1998-2004) and guided the Snappers to the Midwest League Championship Series three times.

His overall professional managerial record stands at 829-842 (.496) during a span of 13 seasons with Oneonta, Beloit and Huntsville. Before managing in the professional ranks, Money coached at Sacred Heart Catholic School for five years (1987-91), leading the team to two state tournaments.

Money enjoyed a 16-year Major League playing career with Philadelphia (1968-72) and Milwaukee (1973-83). A four-time All-Star with Milwaukee, Money became the first Brewer to start in an All-Star Game (1978). He was a member of the 1982 American League Champion squad.

Money was voted Brewers team MVP in 1974 and 1977. During the 1977 season, he set a Major League record for consecutive errorless chances at third base (261) and currently holds the Major League record for most consecutive errorless games at that position (88), set from September 28, 1973 through July 16, 1974. MILWAUKEE BREWERS

LOGO HISTORY

Seattle Pilots (1969)
The Seattle Pilots used this logo for one season before moving to Milwaukee and becoming the Brewers.

Milwaukee Brewers (1970-1977)
The "Barrel Man" logo was the first identity used by the Brewers. It was first used by the original American Association Brewers in the 1940s.

Milwaukee Brewers (1978-1993)
The "ball-in-glove" logo was introduced in 1978 after a contest which was open to the public drew more than 2,000 entries. An Art History student at UW-Eau Claire, Tom Meindel, designed the logo that went on to be the winner. The design of the logo was meant to be recognizable on items as small as a button and as large as a billboard.

Milwaukee Brewers (1994-1999)
As the Brewers celebrated their 25th anniversary in Milwaukee, they introduced a new look. Green was incorporated as a color for the first time in franchise history. The logo resembled an industrial stamp, paying homage to Milwaukee's industrial history, and gave the team a modern yet old-fashioned look.

Milwaukee Brewers (2000-Present)
The current logo was introduced during the final season at County Stadium, giving the team a fresh look heading into Miller Park. The classy yet contemporary look was created by McDill Design of Milwaukee along with Major League Baseball Creative Services. The barley in the logo speaks to the heritage of the Brewers name that has been in Milwaukee baseball since 1901.

RETIRED NUMBERS

HANK AARON

Born: 2/5/34 in Mobile, AL
Position: Outfield
Batted/Threw: R/R
Years in Milwaukee: 1954-65, 75-76

"Hammerin' Hank" had his number retired after the conclusion of the 1976 season. Aaron played in Milwaukee from 1954-65 with the Braves and from 1975-76 with the Brewers. He was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in 1982 after closing out his career with a Major League-record 755 home runs. Aaron was the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1957, the year the Braves won the World Series. He hit 40 or more home runs in eight seasons, drove in 100 or more runs 16 times and had a .305 lifetime batting average.

ROLLIE FINGERS

Born: 8/25/46 in Steubenville, OH
Position: Pitcher
Batted/Threw: R/R
Years in Milwaukee: 1981-85

The man who made the handlebar mustache famous had his number "34" retired in ceremonies at County Stadium on August 9, 1992. Fingers, who was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in 1992, spent five seasons in a Brewers uniform. He made his mark on the baseball world as the game's first relief ace. Fingers won both the American League Cy Young and Most Valuable Player awards in 1981, the first pitcher to accomplish the feat since Oakland's Vida Blue in 1971.

ROBIN YOUNT

Born: 9/16/55 in Danville, IL
Position: Shortstop/Outfield
Batted/Threw: R/R
Years in Milwaukee: 1974-93

"The Kid" had his number "19" retired in ceremonies at County Stadium on May 29, 1994. Yount played his entire 20-year career with the Brewers after breaking into the big leagues at the tender age of 18. He won American League Most Valuable Player awards in 1982 and 1989, becoming the third player in Major League history to capture MVP honors at two different positions (Stan Musial/Hank Greenberg). Yount, who collected 3,142 career hits, was the first player to enter the National Baseball Hall of Fame as a Brewer after being inducted on July 25, 1999.

PAUL MOLITOR

Born: 8/22/56 in St. Paul, MN
Position: Infield
Batted/Threw: R/R
Years in Milwaukee: 1978-92

"The Ignitor" had his number "4" retired in ceremonies at County Stadium on July 11, 1999. During his speech prior to the game against the Minnesota Twins, Molitor said that should he be voted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame, he would be honored to enter as a Milwaukee Brewer. Molitor followed through with that commitment as he became the second Brewer to be inducted into the Hall of Fame in 2004. Molitor's career in Milwaukee spanned 15 seasons and was highlighted by the 1982 World Series and a 39-game hitting streak in 1987.

JACKIE ROBINSON

Born: 1/31/19 in Cairo, GA
Position: Second Base
Batted/Threw: R/R
Years in the Majors: 1947-56

The man who broke baseball's color barrier in 1947 as a Brooklyn Dodger had his number "42" retired by Major League Baseball in 1997. The Brewers honored Robinson in special pre-game ceremonies at County Stadium on July 18, 1997. Pitcher Scott Karl (1995-99) was the last Brewer to wear the number.

BOB UECKER

Born: 1/26/35 in Milwaukee, WI
Position: Catcher/Broadcaster
Batted/Threw: R/R
Years in Milwaukee: 1971-present

"Mr. Baseball" had his name placed among the Brewers' retired numbers at Miller Park in a ceremony on August 26, 2005. The ceremony commemorated Uecker's 50th year in baseball. Although Uecker never played for the Brewers, he did play six seasons in the majors for the Milwaukee Braves, Philadelphia Phillies, Atlanta Braves and St. Louis Cardinals before retiring in 1967. Former Brewers owner and current Major League Baseball Commissioner Bud Selig hired Uecker as an announcer in 1971, a position he has held ever since.

POSTSEASON HISTORY

1981 AMERICAN LEAGUE EAST DIVISION SERIES - MILWAUKEE vs. NEW YORK

For the first time in Major League history, a divisional playoff series was established because of the split season. In the American League East Division, New York, winners of the first half, confronted Milwaukee, winners of the second half. It was the 34th time that the Yankees participated in the postseason, while it marked the first appearance in playoff competition for the Brewers. New York took the best-of-five series, three games to two, and swept three games from Oakland to earn the American League Championship. RADIO ANNOUNCERS

BOB UECKER

Entering his 39th year behind the mic as a Major League Baseball broadcaster for his hometown team calling play-by-play on WTMJ-Radio and the Brewers Radio Network, Bob Uecker will celebrate his 54th year in professional baseball in 2009.

Uecker earned the 2003 Ford C. Frick Award and will forever be recognized in Baseball's Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, New York. On July 27, 2003, he made one of the most memorable speeches in Hall of Fame induction history as he left his audience, including former President George H. Bush, in tears from laughter.

In 2003, Uecker also joined former Brewers general manager, Harry Dalton, as a member of the Brewers Walk of Fame, located near home plate outside of Miller Park. He and Dalton joined Robin Yount, Paul Molitor, Hank Aaron, Rollie Fingers, Allan H. (Bud) Selig, Jim Gantner, Gorman Thomas and Cecil Cooper in receiving this special honor.

Affectionately known across the country as "Mr. Baseball," Uecker has completed 28 seasons as the club's number one announcer. Uecker is highly respected in the industry, having been inducted into the Radio Hall of Fame in 2001, where he joined such baseball broadcasting luminaries as Vin Scully, Mel Allen, Red Barber, Ernie Harwell and Jack Brickhouse as well as other American icons such as Bob Hope, Jack Benny, Edward R. Murrow and Orson Welles.

Uecker has been named Wisconsin Sportscaster of the Year five times during his career and was inducted into the Wisconsin Sports Hall of Fame in 1998.

His big break can be traced to a 1969 visit with Al Hirt, a renowned jazz trumpeter from New Orleans, which would alter Uecker's life forever. Hirt opened a small nightclub in Atlanta and asked Uecker to come on stage. Hirt was so impressed, he arranged an appearance for Uecker on the "Tonight Show," starring Johnny Carson. Uecker became one of Carson's favorite guests, making some 100 appearances before Carson retired in 1992. He also made appearances on the Mike Douglas and Merv Griffin shows, Late Night with David Letterman and as a guest host on Saturday Night Live.

Uecker became a national celebrity and the ABC Network took advantage of his popularity. He made appearances on "The Superstars" and "The Midnight Special," which opened the door for more high-profile appearances.

A versatile talent, Uecker's credits go far beyond guest appearances and play-by-play. In 1985, Uecker launched a television acting career as one of the stars of ABC's sitcom "Mr. Belvedere," which put 122 episodes into syndication. He also hosted two syndicated television shows, "Bob Uecker's Wacky World of Sports" and "Bob Uecker's War of the Stars." He was one of the Miller Lite All-Stars in popular commercials for Lite Beer from Miller. Uecker was cast as a radio announcer in the film "Major League," which was filmed at County Stadium, and the sequel, "Major League II."

His experience broadcasting Brewers games both on radio and television gained Uecker national recognition as he went on to serve as play-by-play announcer for ABC Sports coverage of Monday Night Baseball, the League Championship Series and the World Series.

Uecker's accomplishments are not limited to the electronic medium. A former catcher who spent six seasons in the Major Leagues, Bob authored a book entitled "Catcher In the Wry," a humorous look back on the years he spent with the Milwaukee/Atlanta Braves, St. Louis Cardinals and Philadelphia Phillies. One of his career highlights as a player came in 1964, when he was a member of the World Champion St. Louis Cardinals.

Despite his national attention and success, Bob never forgot his roots. His philanthropic efforts benefit several local organizations, including the United Performing Arts Fund, the Midwest Athletes Against Childhood Cancer Fund, the Milwaukee Symphony, the Boys and Girls Clubs of Greater Milwaukee and Big Brothers/Big Sisters. In addition, Uecker is an advocate for organizations that battle cystic fibrosis and heart disease and is involved with the Wisconsin Department of Tourism. He also chairs the popular Bob Uecker Celebrity Fishing Tournament for the Make-A-Wish Foundation.

For his efforts, Uecker was inducted into the Wisconsin Performing Artists Hall of Fame in 1993. The Hall of Fame was established in 1983 to honor nationally and internationally known performing artists with Wisconsin ties. In 1994, he was elected to the Wisconsin Broadcasters Association Hall of Fame. In January 1995, he earned the "Big B.A.T." Award from the Baseball Assistance Team at a dinner in New York City for his continuing support of former Major League stars who are in need of assistance.

KENT SOMMERFELD

Kent Sommerfeld is in his 24th season as the producer of Milwaukee Brewers radio broadcasts. A Wisconsin native, he has acquired a wide range of experience during his tenure in the broadcasting field.

Sommerfeld has been the radio producer/director for the Marquette University radio network since 1990 and hosted an interview segment during the team's pre-game programming during the 1995-96 season. He was named director of the Marquette Basketball radio network in 1999 and does play-by-play for the Marquette University women's basketball radio broadcasts.

Sommerfeld attended the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater, where he earned a degree in communications and broadcast journalism. While at Whitewater, Sommerfeld was the sports director of Cable TV-6, a wing of Whitewater's cable system, as well as the co-host of "Sports Chat," a sports talk show on WSUW-Radio.

In addition to his radio accolades, Sommerfeld has worked with ESPN's technical staff on several events in the midwest. He also worked at KRBC-TV, the NBC affiliate in Abilene, Texas, as a sports/news photojournalist.

Born in Milwaukee, Sommerfeld attended Brookfield Central High School. He has two sons, Peter and Luke, and resides in New Berlin, Wisconsin.

TELEVISION ANNOUNCERS

BRIAN ANDERSON

Brian Anderson was named Brewers play-by-play announcer on January 10, 2007 and is entering his third season as a Major League broadcaster.

In just his second season, Anderson was tabbed by TBS to do play-by-play for the network's coverage of the 2008 National League Division Series, where he was able to call the Brewers-Phillies series.

As a part of his work on the 2007 Brewers Preview Show, Anderson and the FSN team were awarded a regional Emmy Award.

Anderson joined the Brewers from the Golf Channel, where he worked as a play-by-play announcer from 2003-06. In his role there, he served as a host for a variety of the network's events, including the PGA and Nationwide Tours. Anderson also worked at FSN Southwest as a sideline reporter for the San Antonio Spurs from 1999-07, where he saw the Spurs win three NBA Championships.

From 1998-2000, Anderson handled Minor League and Little League Baseball telecasts for ESPN. He received his start in baseball with the San Antonio Missions, the Double-A affiliate of the San Diego Padres, serving as a radio/television play-by-play announcer from 1994-98 and from 2000-03.

Anderson played catcher on the nationally-ranked baseball team at St. Mary's University (Texas) and graduated Cum Laude from the school in 1993 with a degree in English-communications. His brother, Mike Anderson, had a stint in the majors as a pitcher with the Cincinnati Reds (1993) and is currently a Major League scout in the Texas Rangers organization.

BILL SCHROEDER

Popular with the fans, Schroeder began his career behind the mic as the Brewers' color man after a distinguished playing career. He is familiar with the business of talking baseball, co-hosting "Baseball Sunday" in 1994 and "Talkin' Brewers" on WTMJ-Radio from 1998-2000. As a part of his work on the 2007 Brewers Preview Show, Schroeder and the FSN team were awarded a regional Emmy Award.

For the past six winters, Schroeder has served as the coordinator of Brewers Fantasy Camp. The camp is always a hit, selling out each year at the Brewers' spring training home in Maryvale, Arizona.

Schroeder spent eight seasons in the big leagues with the Brewers and California Angels, posting a career-best .332 batting average in 1987. He caught Juan Nieves' no-hitter on April 15, 1987 in the midst of the Brewers' Major League record-tying 13-0 start. In addition, he clubbed a career-high 14 home runs and had 42 RBI in a backup role that season. Schroeder provided the highlight to his finest season in the majors on June 14, 1987 at Yankee Stadium, where before family and friends, he collected four hits, including a game-winning two-run homer off Dave Righetti. Schroeder was traded to the California Angels following the 1988 campaign before retiring as a player in 1990.

An active member in the community, Schroeder won the Athletes For Youth Good Guy Award in 1988.

Born in Baltimore and raised in Princeton, New Jersey, Schroeder graduated from West Windsor Plainsboro High School, where he earned All-State honors his junior and senior years. He attended Clemson University, leading the Tigers to the Atlantic Coast Conference title in 1978 and 1979.

Schroeder and his wife, Kate, reside in Muskego, Wisconsin. He has two daughters, Lindsey and Mallory, and a son named Billy. The couple also has a miniature dachshund named Otis.

CRAIG COSHUN

Craig Coshun begins his ninth season covering the Brewers as a pre-game host and sideline reporter for selected games on FS Wisconsin. Coshun has also filled in as the play-by-play announcer during his time with the team. Following the baseball season, he performs the same duties for the NBA's Milwaukee Bucks.

Coshun is a veteran sportscaster in the state, calling several events for the University of Wisconsin, the Big Ten Network and the ESPN family of networks. He has also handled the WIAA state high school football championships and is a feature writer for Inside Wisconsin Sports Magazine.

As a part of his work on the 2007 Brewers Preview Show, Coshun and the FSN team were awarded a regional Emmy Award.

Coshun has worked at NBC affiliates in Eau Claire (WEAU) and Madison (WMTV) and was the sports director at WMTV from 1992-2000. He is a graduate of UW-Whitewater.

DAVE NELSON

Dave Nelson enters his third season as an analyst for FS Wisconsin broadcasts. He also serves as Brewers Director of Alumni Relations and leads the team's Speakers Bureau. In his front office role, Nelson maintains a database of former Brewers players as well as organizes events for Brewers alumni.

Prior to his current role, Nelson served as Brewers first-base coach from 2003-06. In 2001 and 2002, he was a minor-league outfield instructor. Nelson began his Major League coaching career in 1981 with Chicago-AL and later spent time coaching in Cleveland, Oakland and Montreal. In 1980, he was on the coaching staff at Texas Christian University.

Nelson enjoyed a 10-year Major League playing career from 1968-77. The former outfielder played for Cleveland, Washington, Texas and Kansas City. He was named to the American League All-Star Team in 1973.

Born in Fort Still, Oklahoma, Nelson went on to graduate from Junipero Serra High School in California. He attended Compton Junior College for one year and Los Angeles State College for two years. MARYVALE BASEBALL PARK

The Brewers return to Arizona for their 12th spring training at beautiful Maryvale Baseball Park. Considered to be one of the premiere spring complexes, the Brewers are in the midst of a 15-year lease through 2012 which has helped to revitalize the Maryvale neighborhood.

The facility, which opened in 1998, includes 7,000 permanent seats as well as 1,000 lawn seats. The complex features eight fields, including two half-fields. The Brewers minor-league players also train at the Maryvale complex across the parking lot from the Major League facility.

John F. Long, a longtime Valley developer, donated 56 acres of land to make this exceptional complex a reality. With Maricopa County, the Maryvale County Stadium District and the city of Phoenix providing resources, Maryvale Baseball Park is the foundation for future neighborhood development. The Phoenix Parks and Recreation Department oversees the complex's operations.

The primary architect of the ballpark was Ellerbe Beckett of Phoenix, AZ. Their work at Maryvale led to several awards in 1998, including the Architecture Accessiblilty Award from the Mayor's Commission on Disability Issues, the Citation Award from the Arizona Chapter of the American Institute of Architects and the Merit Award from the Western Mountain Region of the American Institute of Architects.
